

CIRCLES...CIRCLES...CIRCLES...CIRCLES...CIRCLES

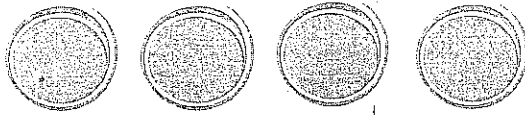

To "circumvent" something means to avoid it by passing around it. What five things would you like to circumvent?

Draw the floor plan for a circular bedroom.

Design something circular that is usually square. Elaborate.

What six characteristics do you want people in your circle of friends to possess?

What two ideas would you like to circulate, or spread, around the world?

Draw and label 10 things that are always circle-shaped.
